

Artifact Evaluation Questionnaire

Museum staff members use your answers to evaluate the appropriateness of objects for the museum's permanent collection. The more information you give us, the better our evaluation will be. If this museum is not the best home for your artifact, the information you include below will help us in suggesting alternate museums for your donation.

1. What is the artifact you are offering to donate to the White River Valley Museum?

2. Do you own the object and do you have the right to donate it to the museum?
Yes _____ No _____

3. When you donate this object to the museum, are you also transferring full literary rights, property rights and copyrights?
Yes _____ No _____

4. What is it's history and how is it related to the story of Auburn? Who made it? How was it made? Who owned it? Why was it important to them? When and how was it used?

5. When and how did you acquire this artifact?

6. Is the artifact damaged or recently repaired? If so, how?
